NEWS

▶ HAIRSPRAY

Sally Horowitz Photography

*I know where I'm going.
And I know where I've been.*

Thank you to everyone who attended the powerful production of "Hairspray." The community showed an overwhelming amount of support, even selling out the last two shows.

This production not only provided the community with a spectacular display of talent and artistic craft, but it spoke on the relevant issues of our time. An outpouring of gratitude for the cast, crew, and everyone involved in making this a success! It is definitely one to remember!

▶ CHORDS FOR CLARK

Thank you to those who came out to support the George Rogers Clark High School Choir at the 3rd Annual Chords for Clark! Special thanks to The Kentuckians Chorus and The Cardinal Singers for providing a wonderful night of music.

ART AND DIALOGUE

ARTICLE LINKS FOUND ON OUR FACEBOOK PAGE!

Join gallery curator Rebecca Campomanes in a discussion of Kevlen Goodner's artworks "Lock Up the Vote," "Mr. Smith's Neighborhoods," and "Black and Blue." These pieces (and more) are currently displayed at Leeds and are illustrations for articles written by Phillip Bailey for Louisville Magazine in 2015. Goodner and Bailey depict three issues that black communities throughout our nation face, but with a specific focus on people in Louisville. Rebecca will facilitate dialog around the artwork and articles in a book club-like format. Anyone wanting to participate in the discussion is asked to read the articles before hand.

This event is FREE and open to the public.

OCTOBER 28th @ 1:30 - 4:30 PM
